DATE: 6/22/65

On 6/18/65

[redacted] advised it has now been announced that Princess Margaret will make a visit to the United States in October or November, 1965 and because of this the police have asked that individuals writing to her from the United States be contacted and advised to stop such activity. Because the impending visit of Princess Margaret was not known at the time my letter of 6/14/65 was written, it is suggested that the identities of these individuals writing letters might be made available to the U.S. Secret Service, who undoubtedly will have courtesy protection duties involving the visit.

b7C

b7D

Enclosed are two letters written by an unknown individual signing his name "Uncle Walter", mailed from 4200 Shirley Avenue, Lynwood, California.

Because the identities of the individuals writing the letters have not been established, this information has not been placed in a letterhead memorandum and the Bureau is respectfully requested to establish identities of these individuals and then to furnish this information to Secret Service.

If the Bureau is able to develop any information as to the identity of this letter writer, it should be furnished to this office in order that this information can be given to [redacted] for his future reference rejected by the girl for another, and she stated this unsettled him emotionally for an extended period of time. Subsequently,

[redacted] stated that her son thereafter sought and obtained psychiatric treatment at the local Sacramento County Hospital; he was receiving such treatment up to within a short period of time before he departed the Sacramento area.

[redacted] advised that her son resorted, during his periods of emotional upset, to the reading of fairy tales, being primarily interested in those found in English literature. She stated that most recently he has been seeking the "Queen of Hearts," and has so frequently mentioned this fact to her that he has obviously become obsessed in his quest for this fictional individual. [redacted] said she has been aware that her son has written various letters to different people and, among them, a letter to Buckingham Palace, London, England. She advised that she did not know the identity of the addressee, but reiterated she was aware he had written to someone at the Palace. She also advised he mentioned to her he had written because he was seeking his "Queen of Hearts," and had hoped to fulfill what he found in the fairy tales he had been reading.

[redacted] further stated she is of the belief her son either wrote to or intended to address a letter to Mrs. JACQUELINE KENNEDY, wife of the ex-President, for the purpose of seeking her hand in marriage. She stated she is not certain that her son actually wrote to Mrs. KENNEDY, and it may be that he merely mentioned his intention to do so.

The mother further stated that she expected to receive either a letter or telephone call from her son in the immediate future, advising her of his current address.

[redacted] Retailers Credit Association advised on July 16, 1965, that [redacted] became known to files of that agency during September, 1961. In 1961 he lived at the above address, and furnished his previous residence as [redacted]

[redacted] identified herself as the daughter of Walter Ellis McKinzie, M.D., a sixty-five-year-old retired physician of 616 South St. Paul, Los Angeles. [redacted] said her father engaged in the practice of medicine in the Los Angeles area for over twenty years, but was forced to retire in 1952, when he began to show some evidence of mental instability.

[redacted] examined two letters addressed to H.R.H. Princess Margaret dated May 31 and June 2, 1965, by "Uncle Walter" and identified them as correspondence written by her father. [redacted] said she knew her father had great admiration for Princess Margaret, but was not aware he had written to her personally. [redacted] advised that her father is completely "harmless" and as a deeply religious man was only interested in telling Princess Margaret about the results of his religious studies and writings. [redacted] said she would see to it that her father writes no more letters to Princess Margaret.

Walter Ellis McKinzie, M.D., 616 South St. Paul Street, Los Angeles, California, was contacted in accordance with the request of [redacted] and asked to refrain from corresponding with H.R.H. Doctor McKinzie said he first became interested in the history of the Royal Family during 1958, and since then has written over thirty-five letters to Princess Margaret outlining his theories on Psychiatry and Theology. Doctor McKinzie said he was extremely sorry if his letters created any difficulty, since he only intended them to be helpful to Princess Margaret. Dear Margaret:- June 2 '65

I am a little worried whether my two letters reached you safely, they are dated May 29 and 31. The reason for concern is that another similar letter became unsealed and thereby revealed a faulty envelope. Please let me know at once if these letters have not been received so that I can duplicate them.

This is June the month for romance and wedding bells. It is <sup>also</sup> graduation time for many young hopefuls and others not so young.

I am receiving a highly

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

prized degree myself for the completion of my "Bible" project which I described in my May 31 letter. This degree is a Doctorate in Theology. From this moment forward I can not be outranked by any religious dignitary regardless of position or title. Therefore I am subject to no church law except that of my own making and nobody can tell me what is right and wrong.

This<sup>is</sup> naturally so because I have written the "New Bible" which supercedes the old.

With my several academic degrees and my countless achievements behind me I should be able to steer our civilization back on course. However, I am sure that conditions will get much worse before the world throws in the sponge and allows a new regime to take over to remake it.

I have learned that it is just as important to know what can not be done as it is to know what can be done. using miracle cures to solve problems is just an effort in futility leading down the road to failure.

It is also vitally essential to choose just the right moment at which to enter a confused and disrupted social and political situation.

In any case, I will continue to be available to consult with and advise those who can qualify as sincere builders of a better world.

This will be my role in the future as it has been in the past, only my participation will be intensified.

Likewise, Princess Margaret, I can assure you a most important place in the new scheme of things, one that will be interesting, challenging and rewarding.

As I said before, there are so many things to talk about that I am hoping for an early beginning of conversations under an ideal setting.

well, I hope I haven't tired you with my rather serious portrayal of the situation but that's about the way it is.

Goodbye for now
Uncle Walter.

My dear adopted cousins:
At last I am able to

I have finished the final have placed it into the hands of my publishing com-

This is the autobiography since 1955. It can be rightly called the "Modern Bible" because it presents a "New Testament" of the present day world as lived and practiced in the Twentieth Century.

My 'Book' is essentially the story of my struggles, strivings and achievements during all my years in Canada and the United States. It covers my studies, observations, and experiences told frankly and honestly. I have been engaged full time on this project since May 1951.

My 'work', "The Modern Bible" is essentially and basically Religious

● in nature but covers all facets of our culture such as medicine, Politics, Psychology, Law and Education. It also delves deeply into social, Racial and Family problems and offers guide posts as well as definite suggestions for their solution. I

● This whole project was exclusively my "Brain Child" in both its origin and planning as well as its execution. However, expert consultants will assist in whipping the subject matter into shape for publishing which should be completed within the coming year.

I am indeed pleased on this Memorial Day to dedicate this monumental
'work' to you Princess Margaret, your sister Queen Elizabeth and my daughter Ruth, who has been my loyal opposition and severest critic throughout this endeavor.

In closing let me say that I will welcome any will feel free to do so.

My love and best regards

Proposed Visit of Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon
to the United States, November, 1965

The July, 1965, issue of the "United Irishman", on Page 3, contains a column entitled, "World Affairs", by James McNellis. Contained in this article is the following item:

"The British Government has announced that Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, will make an official visit to the United States next November. Her tour will include New York City, Washington, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. British Royalty has always received a lukewarm welcome from the American people and it is generally thought that the visit may be timed to coincide with a brand new British Government application for another loan to support the faltering British pound. It remains to be seen whether Margaret will be any more welcome in the United States by Irish-American groups than she was on her visit to the Twenty-Six Countries last spring."

Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon
to the United States, November, 1965

During August and September, 1965, confidential sources familiar with Irish activities in the New York City area advised that they have no information indicating that any demonstrations against Princess Margaret, or her husband, Lord Snowdon, would be made.

The sources indicated that they did not know [redacted] and suggested that this name could very well be a pseudonym if it is used by the "United Irishman."

The "United Irishman" is a monthly newspaper published in Dublin, Ireland. It is the official publication of the Irish Republican movement.

SUBJECT: VISIT OF PRINCESS MARGARET AND THE EARL OF SNOWDEN TO THE U. S.

As the Director will meet Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden on several occasions during their forthcoming visit to Washington, the following background information is being provided for his use.

Princess Margaret is, of course, the Princess Margaret Rose, sister of Queen Elizabeth, and the second child of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. She was born 8/21/30 and is described as very pleasant but extremely short (5' 2"). On 5/6/60, she married Antony Charles Robert Armstrong-Jones, a commoner, who was subsequently given the title Earl of Snowden. She is addressed as "Your Royal Highness" and he is addressed as "Lord Snowden." This is her first visit to the U.S. and she has not previously come to the official notice of the Bureau. Her security during this visit is being handled by the Department of State and we have been asked to cooperate by promptly furnishing any information which would be of assistance. We have done so and even before the visit we cooperated with the British authorities by running down several "crank letters" addressed to Princess Margaret by U. S. residents.

Lord Snowden, known as "Tony" to his close associates, was born 3/7/30 and the "Current Biography Yearbook - 1960" states he is descended from landed gentry but, prior to his marriage, "flouted convention and reveled in informality." His father has been married three times and his mother twice. He flunked out of Cambridge University in 1951 and worked with a photographer, gradually becoming popular in "fashionable circles" and eventually being appointed an official court photographer in 1958. He is said to have first met Princess Margaret formally early in 1958 and the secret of their friendship was very closely held until their official engagement in February, 1960. At this time, according to the "Biography," he abandoned his Pimlico studio, his photographic career, his bluejeans, his loud shirts, and moved into Buckingham Palace.

[redacted] Both [redacted] and [redacted] said they did not use the story

Fry, age 35, had withdrawn as best man at the Royal Wedding, claiming a recurrence of jaundice. Time reports that the sensational Sunday newspaper, "The People," revealed that in 1952, Fry had been arrested in Hyde Park and fined two pounds after pleading guilty to a minor offense and stating in court "I'm afraid I was rather drunk."

They have a son, [redacted] who

On 11-16-65 [REDACTED] Duty Officer, State Department Security Office, advised Night Supervisor [REDACTED] as follows:

[REDACTED] State Department Security, was attending a reception at the home of Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach on the evening of 11-16-65, given for Princess Margaret of Great Britain.

While [REDACTED] was at the reception, an [REDACTED] no other description, was observed passing out some sort of literature outside the Attorney General's residence.

[REDACTED] called his office and asked that this information be passed on to FBI Headquarters for information.

Night Supervisor [REDACTED] WFO, ascertained from Sergeant [REDACTED] Communications Officer, Metropolitan Police Department, that a Sergeant [REDACTED] who was apparently in charge of a detail at the above-mentioned reception, reported that subject, whom [REDACTED] described as a "religious fanatic," was attempting to pass out what appeared to be religious literature. However, he was only in the area a very short time and departed. A piece of the literature in question was obtained by the Police Department and WFO will get it early 11-17-65 and call the Bureau as to its contents.

WFO files are negative concerning subject. No arrest was made by the police department.

Bureau files indicate that at 1:15 a.m., 3-7-64, [REDACTED] telephonically contacted the Bureau. He said that a physician had advised him that he had emotional problems and threatened him with confinement in a mental hospital. He stated he had directed a letter to the President and the Attorney General complaining about unfavorable conditions in the area. [REDACTED] rambled on at length and it was the impression of the Agent who talked to him that he was emotionally disturbed.

MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
TELEPHONE CALL, 2:45 P. M., NOVEMBER 7, 1965

At 2:45 p. m., November 7, 1965, Supervisor [redacted] received a telephone call from [redacted]

[redacted] who advised that he was formerly a reporter for Associated Press. He stated that he felt the visit of Princess Margaret of Great Britain to the United States should be handled by the FBI rather than by the Office of Security, Department of State. He said that, in his opinion, all of the members of Princess Margaret's party were communists. He based this on the fact that he had accompanied her party as a reporter when she toured the Caribbean in 1955. When asked for specifics, [redacted]

[redacted] stated that Inspector (first name unknown) [redacted] had been with Princess Margaret's party in 1955 and is again with her party at this time and that this Inspector is "queer."

[redacted] indicated that this was merely his opinion and that he had no factual basis for the statement. He concluded by stating he felt each member of Princess Margaret's party should be investigated by the FBI, but that he was aware we did not have jurisdiction to do this. [redacted] was advised his call will be made a matter of record.

Bufiles contain no information identifiable with [redacted]

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the nonspecific nature of [redacted] allegations, no further action is recommended.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Los Angeles, California

December 6, 1965

VISIT OF HER ROYAL HIGHNESS
PRINCESS MARGARET AND LORD SNOWDEN OF GREAT BRITAIN TO THE UNITED STATES
NOVEMBER, 1965

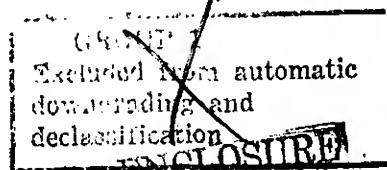

The Los Angeles "Herald-Examiner", a daily newspaper, on November 8, 1965, carried the headline "A Threat on Meg". This story reflected that Her Highness and Lord Snowden would be under extra heavy guard in Los Angeles after threatening notes were received at the British Consulate, Los Angeles, California. The "Herald-Examiner" story indicated that all police and security forces involved in the safety of the visitors had been supplied photographs and data regarding four suspects ordered arrested on sight. This story contained no further data concerning the threat. The remainder of the item in the "Herald-Examiner" was concerned with the visit to Los Angeles of Her Royal Highness and Lord Snowden, their activities and their plans.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, and whose office is generally familiar with activities in the Los Angeles area, advised on November 8, 1965, that his office had no knowledge of a threat against the welfare of Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden.

Sergeant [redacted] Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), Intelligence Division, advised the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on November 8, 1965, that his office had heard rumors concerning this threat but had not been able to confirm it. b7C

The above source again advised on November 9, 1965, that on November 7, 1965, at the time of arrival of Her Royal Highness in Los Angeles, there was a contingent of California Highway Patrol officers and Deputy Sheriffs of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office (LASO) protecting the Royal Party. Source advised that while in Beverly Hills, California, two Los Angeles, California Police Department Intelligence Officers remained on the perimeter of its force protecting the Party. Several reporters were known to inquire as to the identity of these two men and when advised they were Intelligence Officers of the LAPD the reporters were believed to have drawn their own conclusions as to a threat against the Princess.

Source further advised that the LAPD, Intelligence Division, was besieged with telephone inquiries from news media on Monday, November 8, 1965, concerning a threat. This source further stated the LAPD has no knowledge of any threat made upon the Princess and there were no orders to arrest four individuals on sight as indicated in the "Herald-Examiner". The source further stated that the LAPD was furnishing two officers from the Intelligence Division for the remainder of Her Royal Highness' visit in Los Angeles, in addition to the State Department security officers assigned.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Meg Dinner Shows Who Rates

By Drew Pearson

Lobbyists, diplomats and others who want to know who's "in" at the White House are preserving the guest list of the White House dinner for Princess Margaret. It's a tip-off on who rates with Lyndon.

Significantly, five Rockefellers were invited, but few other Republicans. Gov. Rockefeller, who has vigorously supported LBJ in Vietnam, was there, with his wife "Happy."

Laurance Rockefeller and his wife were there. Laurance has supported Lady Bird's beautification program.

John D. Rockefeller IV, a former member of the Peace Corps and a participant in Kennedy-Johnson projects, also attended as a stag. He's taken a house in West Virginia, and may run for Congress later.

Perhaps to offset the Rockefellers, the guest list featured Secretary of Labor Bill Wirtz and his assistant, Jim Reynolds, with wives, Gussie Busch III of the St. Louis Anheuser-Busch beer fame, along with Peter Duchin, the New York orchestra leader.

Most significant of all, however, was the blackout given the ~~contrast~~ contrast to the welcome mat given the TV networks. Only two newspaper couples were invited, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Millis of the New York Herald Tribune and the Bill Whites.

In contrast, all three network presidents were at the dinner — Leonard Goldenson of ABC, Bob Kintner of NBC and Frank Stanton of CBS, despite the fact that they had all attended other White House dinners within the last three months. Also invited were Robert Pierpoint, CBS, and Ray Scherer, NBC.

The networks have been all-out for the President. The newspapers have been more aloof. At his last wedding anniversary, the 30th, Lyndon invited Joe Alsop, a frequent critic, and Katharine Graham, president of the Washington Post Company. Both are independent, sometimes critical. They were not asked again this year.

Note: The networks are going to need some help from LBJ later. A fourth network is in the offing. Also the FCC faces a history-making decision regarding KHJ, the TV station owned by the O'Neil family of General Tire and Rubber, RKO and Aerojet. They manufacture the Polaris missile. A potent Southern California group has applied for this license, and, under FCC rules, TV ownership is supposed to be local, not with

Absent Critic

There is an interesting story behind the fact that the Senator who is chairman of the Subcommittee on Foreign Affairs is not at the Rio de Janeiro conference — Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

Actually, Morse was scheduled to go. But a week before the conference opened he telephoned Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

"I don't believe I should go," he said. "I don't think that a Senator who disagrees with the Administration on Latin America should be in a position of talking publicly against the Administration's policy at a Pan American conference."

"Even if I don't talk," Morse continued, "my presence in Rio would bring out certain opposition from the Latin delegates. They know that I've been critical on the Senate floor."

The Secretary of State said he would talk to the President, which he did, and came back a day later to say that both he and LBJ hoped that Morse would go. Rusk reminded Morse that he had attended the Bogota conference and the Puente del Este conference and rendered great service to the United States.

"I always want to be in a position of being able to push our country's policy," Morse replied. "This is no place to express disagreement. I am not going."

That ended that. The Senator from Oregon was asked to make a trip to Latin America to survey the situation after the conference was over.

Military Notes

The admirals have never stopped trying to stake a claim on space weaponry. They are now demanding their own manned spacecraft as observation posts in outer space to watch the oceans and protect the fleet from surprise attacks . . . The Army, Air Force and Marines are piling up tons of equipment in South Vietnam that probably will never be used. Some of the heavy equipment simply isn't practical for jungle warfare. The air traffic is so congested that planes have been forced to park on taxiing strips . . . The 1600 Australian combat troops in South Vietnam have been in the thick of the fighting so often that their casualty rate is one in 10, compared to only one in 40 for Americans.

Re Minneapolis letter to Bureau, 3/12/74,
captioned VISIT OF PRINCESS MARGARET AND LORD SNOWDON
TO CANADA AND U.S., MAY 8 and 9, 1974.

An article appearing in the March 7, 1974, issue of the Courier Journal, a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Louisville, Kentucky, area, and an article on page C1 entitled "Princesses's Derby Visit Confirmed", reported that according to MERRICK BAKER-BATES, press spokesman for the British Embassy in Washington, D.C., Princess MARGARET and Lord SNOWDON would attend the 100th running of the Kentucky Derby in Louisville, Kentucky, on Saturday, May 4, 1974.

According to this article, Princess MARGARET will attend the 1974 Kentucky Derby on May 4, 1974, in Louisville, Kentucky, and on May 6, 1974, will be in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for the opening of a new children's hospital and from Philadelphia will go to New York on May 7 to attend a British Ballet.

An article on page B1 of the March 13 issue of the same newspaper entitled, "Princess to Stay at C. V.
WHITNEY Farm", reported that Princess MARGARET and LORD SNOWDON were expected to accept an invitation to stay with Mr. and Mrs. CORNELIOUS VANDERBILT WHITNEY, on their 500 acre horse farm near Lexington, Kentucky, during their visit to Kentucky for the Derby. Princess MARGARET was expected to stay with the WHITNEYS from May 2 to May 5, 1974.

For the information of the Bureau and receiving offices, CORNELIOUS VANDERBILT WHITNEY is a 75 year old multi-millionaire who has been breeding and training thoroughbred race horses for nearly 40 years on his Lexington, Kentucky, farm.
